A CITY FOR ALL

Why don't we mobilize for social change?

1. We feel helpless
2. We feel we're the only ones who care
3. We feel its someone else's responsibility

Mission

To help people make thoughtful and inclusive decisions about the development of their cities – by facilitating citizen participation and collective action.

We aim to empower a generation of people by promoting democratic and participatory approaches to improve urban areas.

BUMI ATLAS

What's happening in Bumi?

Bumi is a small neighborhood close to the commercial center of Solo. Many Bumi residents live close to where they work in the local batik factories. Since it is an older area, it is built up and some areas, but not all, have access to services.

This Mini Atlas collects information about Bumi so everyone can see and understand what is going on. Information about the condition of services can help people discuss what they want from the annual participatory budgeting process, the musrenbang. Our goal is to make citizens more informed about their communities.

ASSETS

What are Bumi's assets?

- Good education of youth
- Batik factories and skilled batik workers
- Near the river

What are potential issues?

- High poverty rate
- Low public water service
- Poor condition of the river

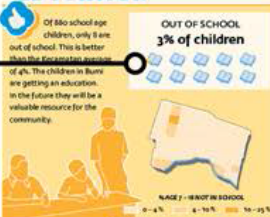

The river, Sungai Jenes, is an asset. It has potential to be a gathering place for the neighborhood. However, its environmental quality is low. It is polluted with domestic and industrial waste.

Overall Impression

Participants

Participants and speakers represented 22 cities in Indonesia

A young woman with dark hair, wearing a grey t-shirt and a yellow lanyard with a badge, stands and speaks into a microphone. She is in the center of the frame. In the background, there are large windows with multiple panes, some of which are covered with yellow paper. A man in a light blue shirt and a backpack is seen from behind, looking out one of the windows. In the foreground and middle ground, several other young people are seated, some looking towards the speaker. They are also wearing yellow lanyards. The room appears to be a large hall or a classroom. The overall atmosphere is one of a formal or semi-formal gathering, possibly a conference or a workshop.

yusniakurniasih Just had so much fun and fruitful discussion sessions with awesome panelists yesterday at the 3rd Urban Social Forum 2019 ☺ I am enlightened as well as inspired by most of the speakers, their brilliant ideas and their sincerity in doing the good. It feels great to have such exposure after being away for years from the city I grow up with. So much positive feelings, thank you USF 2019! 🙏

TurunTangan hadir dalam acara Urban
Social Forum 2015 #USF2015, yg
dilaksanakan di Universitas 17 Agustus.

Banyak Relawan yg hadir mengisi kekosongan di booth TurunTangan! #USF2015. Bersama teman-teman relawan @turuntangan5y, setiap pengunjung booth kami ajak untuk mendiskusikan ide solusi di "Jaring ke spot" untuk membuktikan bahwa mudu bukan hanya mampu merevisi tapi jg mampu memberi solusi, dan hanya itu kami jg mengajak pengunjung bermain games "Synergies Circle".

Sampai bertemu di Event berikutnya! Pejuang!

 I present about @fibebasamipad, tod in Surabaya. We also discussing about technology, innovations and ideas that are urban-focused and transforming the cities of today. It will also discuss the relationship with technology and business solutions considering Indonesia's vastness and uneven access to technology. I was on stage with Puteh Laila, Peta Jakarta, Kota Kita and Trafika.

Technology that connects us, such as Smartphones and social media apps, are changing our lives. It is redefining the barriers of time and space, and reshaping our experience of the city. With technology, social changes are now occurring in terms of culture, business and politics, causing traditional barriers of distance and access to fall and new...
